POLICY GUIDELINES FOR UPLINKING OF TELEVISION CHANNELS FROM INDIA

PREAMBLE

Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India notified the “Guidelines for Uplinking from India” in July 2000. This was followed by “Guidelines for Uplinking of News and Current Affairs TV Channels from India” in March 2003, which were amended in August 2003. Further followed by “Guidelines for use of SNG/DSNGs” in May 2003 and addendum dated 1.4.2005 to the Uplinking guidelines. The Government has, on 20th October 2005, further amended these Guidelines, which came into effect from 2nd December 2005. Some amendments to these Guidelines have also come into operation as a result of enactment of the Sports Broadcasting Signals (Mandatory Sharing with Prasar Bharati) Act, 2007 and the rules and notifications thereunder. Some amendments were also needed in the provisions relating to the determination of the foreign investment in the applicant/permission holder company to bring them in line with the extant FDI Policy of the Government. The Government has, on 7th October 2011 further amended these guidelines. Accordingly, in supersession of all previous guidelines, the Government hereby notifies the following consolidated Uplinking Guidelines. Consequently, no person/entity shall downlink a channel, which has not been registered by the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting under these guidelines. These Guidelines envisage two kinds of permissions. The first kind of permission is required to be obtained by an Indian Company which wants to enter into the business of downlinking one or more foreign satellite Television Channels. The second kind of permission is for allowing the downlinking of the satellite Television Channel and registering it in the list of channels permitted for downlinking in India. A foreign Television Channel can thus seek permission for registration under Downlinking Guidelines for being viewed in India by entering into agreement with an Indian Company fulfilling the eligibility criteria prescribed hereunder. Companies which have been granted permission under the Uplinking Guidelines for uplinking Television Channels from India will automatically stand permitted for seeking permission for registration of channels for Downlinking in India. A channel which is permitted to uplink from India and caters to foreign audience only is not required to seek registration under the Downlinking Guidelines. Henceforth, all persons/ entities providing Television Satellite Broadcasting Services (Television Channels) uplinked from other countries to viewers in India as well as any entity desirous of providing such a Television Satellite Broadcasting Service (Television Channel), receivable in India for public viewership, shall be required to obtain permission from Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, in accordance with the terms and conditions prescribed under these guidelines.

The revised guidelines are as given below:
